Bill Means Heads Merchant Patrol To Set Up Wheel's For Investigation

The initial meeting of the newly appointed Merchant's Patrol met Friday, May 6, at Clark's Drug store, to set up the purpose and aims of the committee. Bill Means, Campbell business merchant, heads the committee.

"To obtain and examine all facts relative to respective merchant patrol services available for Campbell and on the basis of said facts to recommend the particular service most advantageous for the Campbell merchants to be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce," was the purpose and scope adopted by the Merchant Patrol group.

"We intend to solicit the aid of San Jose Police Department, the County Sheriff's office and the San Jose Merchant's association," said Means.

The committee intends to find some solution to the problem of merchant patrol in Campbell and feels that they will receive 100 percent cooperation from the merchants on their final decision.

New committee members to the patrol committee are Lowell Benson and Homer Hyde replacing Carl Fields and John Silberbauer respectively. Other members are Dobie Jeffers, Richard Morton and Means.

"The committee will investigate the problem of merchant patrol in other comparative small communities," the chairman said. "After this intensive investigation, which will take approxmately six weeks to two months, we will examine and interview applicants."

OH!-DEER

Deer are the darndest things to catch! At least that's what Campbell residents thought who tried to rope a wild doe here yesterday.

It all started when news was spread around the neighborhood near Railroad avenue that a deer was visiting several back yards. Some laughed, others thought it was a "tall" one, while the really curious stepped out to take a look.

Sure 'nuf—it was a deer, and a wild one at that. Residents chased her up and down the street, but to no avail. Children squealed in delight. The doe, in a desparation leap, sprinted over the high fence behind the Santa Clara Stove company, injuring herself in the jump. Officials of the company, upon seeing her predicament, immediately opened the gate and let her fly.

After a merry chase the deer was captured and tied. Residents took her "for a ride" to the hills behind Los Gatos and untied the ropes.

The humane residents returned to Campbell tired, happy and convinced deer are the darndest things to catch.

Fact Finding Committee Reports To Community Delegates On Project To Light Grammar School Ball Field

Approximately 45 persons representing most of the organizations in Campbell, gathered Monday evening in the Campbell Grammar school to hear the report of the Fact Finding committee on night lights for the school baseball field.

Extensnve research revealed to the delegates present that $3000 would be necessary to complete the project, which was started under the sponsorship of the Campbell Business and Professional Woman's club.

Seven 70 foot poles would be needed at a cost of $63 a pole. Forty-five dollars would be budgeted for digging the holes with 500 feet of underground wiring being needed at 10 cents a lineal foot. Concrete in which to sink the poles has already been donated to the committee.

In addition 26 floodlights, of the enclosed type, which would turn the field into a class "A" field, would be necessary, at a price of $38.40 a light, the committee reported.

A representative of General Electric appeared before the group to give prices on the installation and compare the upkeep costs of the enclosed and open type lights.

Art Tindall's Ways and Means committee reported several suggestions to the group for collecting funds for the project. They suggested a house to house canvass with tickets for a television set as an incentive; donations from organizations; solicitation of large business houses in San Jose; and a carnival for the community July 8-9. All organizations will be asked to sponsor booths for the carnival.

Donations to date include Dobie Jeffers, $10; Howard Smith, $1; Campbell Hardware, $20; Horace's Grocery, $5; Burnett's Appliances, $5; and De Maria Shoe Repair, $5.

Moorpark Men's club has announced they will challenge any Campbell baseball team that desires practice games.

Quick Thinking By Truck Driver Saves Life Of Merrill

Death brushed Ed. C. Merrill of 334 E. Campbell avenue Wednesday morning and then passed on, leaving him breathless but unharmed.

It all happened when Merrill, 72, driving north on Milton avenue, misjudged the speed on an oncoming cement mix transit truck, according to Patrolman Ed Snow of the California Highway Patrol. The truck, driven by Eugene Braiser, 32, of 47 Wabash street, San Jose, was going west on Campbell avenue.

Braiser, seeing that the truck and Merrill's car were going to collide, jammed on his brakes and swerved his heavy truck in a desperate attempt to avoid crushing the car. The maneuver succeeded and the truck only nicked Merrills fender and right door', but the force overturned the truck on Milton avenue.

A heavy tow rig was necessary to raise the truck and tow it away. It was pronounced a total wreck by Patrolman Snow, who investigated the accident. The truck was owned by Transit Mix Concrete company of 805 W. San Carlos street, San Jose.

Braiser, who was unharmed, was commended for his quick thinking and averting what could have been a more serious accident and loss of life.

SARGENT APPOINTS NORM STONER TO LEAD CAMPBELL IN SUPPORT OF COUNTY GOVERNMENT CENTER SITE

Attorney Norman A. Stoner is Campbell's community chairman in a county-wide campaign to support establishment of the County Government Center at the north city limits of San Jose when he issue comes before the Board of Supervisors at a final public hearing on Wednesday, May 25.

The appointment is announced by Otto E. Sargent, San Jose labor leader, who is chairman of the county-wide action committee.

The government center plan was discussed at a recent meeting of the Campbell Rotary club by Nestor Barrett, executive director of the Campbell Rotary club by Nestor Barrett, executive director of the County Planning commission, who reported that the state's Route 5 freeway, to run just east of Campbell, would provide direct access to the new site.

Stoner is seeking endorsements of the plan from Campbell organizations as well as signatures on petitions to present to the supervisors. Delegations from this area will also be present at the hearing.

"Because any such government center must be located within the limits of the county seat," Sargent points out, "most county residents have thought of it as a problem that concerned San Jose only. Actually residents outside San Jose — two-thirds of our population — have as great a stake in this more convenient and less costly proposal.

Sargent points out that development of the new government site at First and Rosa streets would provide convenient, direct access from all parts of the county for those having business with county, state and federal offices which would be centered there They could not only get to government offices without passing through congested downtown San Jose, but would have free parking on the 66-acre site which the county and San Jose bought as a civic center a year ago.

Some downtown San Jose interests, which seek to maintain its congested centralization, succeeded in defeating the city's participation in the plan at the polls last November, Sargent said. If the county is to keep the site intact as a government center it must take over the city's 22-acre portion before its option expires June 1.

"We expect the few but powerful opposing interests in San Jose will make a strong effort to destroy the government center plan at the May 25th hearing," Sargent continued. "It is therefore of vital importance that the county as a whole make its views known at the hearing.

"Not only would the Rosa street sites be more convenient for all the county and for most of San Jose," he added. "It's development would cost far less than further development around St. James Park, and could be started at once to relieve a critical need for the county offices and public-service space."

Additional necessary acreage near St. James Park, he points out, would cost 100 times more than the $3000 an acre paid by the county for the Rosa street site. Costly skyscraper construction necessary around St. James Park would require a bond issue, whereas two to four-story functional office buildings could be erected in convenient arrangement on the new site, unit by unit, as most needed from year to year out of current building funds and with no increase in taxes. Sargent noted the county now has $800,000 saved up in its building fund from the war years.

Such pay-as-you-go units, Sargent said, would provide more ground-floor service than multistoried buildings for offices doing business with many citizens daily. They could also be modified as to partitioning and be enlarged with wings to provide for future changes in government functions, where-as the more costly skyscraper type of building, with much expensive "dead space" for elevators, ducts and stairways, also "freezes" its offices as to sizes and shapes.

Sargent pointed out that county, federal, state and city offices are now scattered haphazard in 40 different locations, mostly in the downtown San Jose area, to the great inconvenience and confusion of the public. Centralization on an adequate site, with groupings of offices of related functions, would not only be a public and official convenience, but would encourage future operating economies, as overlapping and duplicating ser-

Local Library Grows From One Room To New Building With Unique Plan

(Ed. note—This is the first in a series of informative features about institutions in Campbell that have, as their primary purpose, service to the public. The Campbell Press will run these stories to better acquaint its residents with the features and services open to them in their town.)

The Campbell library used to be a one-room building with 50 books on its shelves. Today it has spacious quarters in a modern building and contains over 6000 reference, novels, and non-fiction books. Its history goes back some 37 years.

In 1912 the Santa Clara county library opened with only a few books. As it grew there came a demand from many communities to establish branches in their towns. In 1914 Campbell put in its request and was the fifth branch library to be established in the county. It was housed in a one-room building known as the Campbell library and clubhouse, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Singletary, present county librarian.

The shelves of the first library in Campbell had wooden covers so that they could be closed up when meetings were going on in the room during the evenings. The book collection continued to grow and the shelves began to bulge.

The Campbell Country Woman's club decided to do something about the needs of the local branch and in 1927 began a building project to obtain a new home for the fast growing community reading center. The money was finally obtained and a building raised providing ample space for the library and a large clubhouse for the local woman's club.

"The Campbell Country Woman's club provides the nicest bit of community cooperation in the entire county," said the genial Mrs. Singletary. "They not only maintain the building but supply the reference material for library use. The county augments the service by providing current material and books for the library shelves."

Campbell's first librarian was Mrs. Ellen Lewis. Following her was Mrs. Elizabeth Kennedy who is now the reference librarian at the county headquarters. Mrs. Lillian Voge was the successor to Mrs. Kennedy and then came Mrs. C. P. Klassen, followed by Miss Mary Fablinger. The present librarian, Mrs. Florine Peake, came to the Campbell office about two and a half years ago.

Mrs. Stella Huntington, county librarian in 1927, and Mrs. Ralston Allison, president of the Country Woman's club, worked together on the library and building project and laid the foundation for its present system and growth.

We are continually pointing with great pride to the Campbell library," said Mrs. Singletary, "and the wonderful system by which the Campbell Country Woman's club carry out the needs of their project for community interest. "And," she added with a twinkle in her eye, "we secretly hope that other communities will want to follow the Campbell example in setting up branch libraries."

The untiring Mrs. Singletary, who is constantly on the move in various communities making suggestions, looking for new building sites, and aiding the local branches, was originally a Campbell resident. She was born in Campbell, but later her family moved away.

The Campbell branch patrons are avid readers. In 1948 over 1000 books were sent to the local library. The county maintains a request system by which branch libraries send in to them the books their patrons are requesting.

"In 1948 only 25 requests for books were made that were not fulfilled," said Mrs. Peake. "When one considers the large number of requests that go in daily, that is a considerablely low number."

In addition to the request system the county has what they call an inter-county service. The state library at Sacramento has on file the titles of books in each branch library. If a branch library receives a request that it cannot fulfill they send it on to the county who, in turn, sends it to the state library. They look up the book and find the branch library in the state that does have the book. Then they send the request for the book to them. This way each county branch, including Campbell, has the books of every branch library at its disposal.

"The minimum number of books sent out to Campbell and other branch libraries is 50 each month," said Mrs. Singletary. "However, many call for a greater number each week and some want less. Each of the 28 branches are continually sending in books which have not proven popular or need mending back to us. Then we can send them to other branches for a try. This way a continual flow of books is maintained betwen the branches and the county headquarters."

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Legg, guests of the evening, were presented to the group. Evelyn Bachman had charge of the entertainment for the evening. She presented three plays to be considered for future production by the group. Evelyn reviewed the "Man Who Came to Dinner;" Thais Ackerman reviewed "Night Must Fall"; and Dean Chamberlin told of "I Remember Mama." All presentations were well received by the group, but no immediate action was taken on any of them as future productions.

Marion Nelson and Marye and Greg Parker had charge of refreshments. They served a delicious birthday cake in honor of Greg and Marion. Mints and coffee were also served.

Kirkwood Tells CTA, Parents Facts On School Bill 2120

Action on Bill 2120, affecting school finances, now pending in the State Assembly, will not be taken until the Governor's Budget Bill is passed, Assemblyman Robert Kirkwood told Campbell California Teachers Association members and parents at a special meeting held May 6 in the grammar school auditorium. Richard Gordon, president of the local CTA, invited Kirkwood here to explain his stand on the much discussed bill.

Kirkwood stated that he felt the bill would not pass until the Budget Bill goes through, adding that June 1 would probably be the earliest date to expect passage of the bill.

Defending his recent amendments to the bill, the Republican from Saratoga stressed three main points in his talk:

1. That the amendments he proposed would reduce the amount received by the school districts from the state from $185 to $170.

2. His amendments would put the poorer districts in better relative positions.

3. His amendment would put a ceiling on the total amount spent by the State on education.

"Bill 2120 is one of the apportionate bills that affects education," Kirkwood told his Campbell listeners. "Senate Bill 850 allows the State to vote a bond issue to aid schools in their capital outlay and the new teacher retirement bill should also be considered as part of the total educational finance picture."

This year Campbell Grammar school teachers will not receive contracts until after Bill 2120 is signed by the Governor and the school district knows how much money will be available for next year, CTA members were told.

More than a pint of water per day is exhaled in the breath.

Large Audience Sees Campbell Girls In Festival

A capacity audience turned out at the Civic auditorium May 7-8 to witness a folk dance festival in which Campbell's Girl Scout Troop 22 participated.

Mistress of ceremonies at the festival complimented the dancing Campbell girls on their colorful peasant costumes. They were the only girls dressed in uniform outfits.

Troop 22 purchased their costumes with money they received from their recent Girl Scout cookie sale. Mrs. A. Wadsworth and Mrs. E. Jansen were responsible for the choice of bright colors and the sewing of the skirts.

Ten girls are now working towards the completion of their sewing badge under the instruction of Mrs. William E. Gould.

Five girls are polishing up on their play under the direction of Kathy Kollmer, a dramatic major at San Jose State who has been helping the girls gain their badge in dramatics for several weeks.

Legion Auxiliary To Visit Ward 17 Of Vet Hospital

Plans were laid for the May 17 visit to Ward 17 of the Palo Alto Veterans hospital at the Wednesday night meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary under the direction of Mrs. John Morley, president. Those going will meet at the IOOF hall at 6 p.m.

Other business of the evening included the election of the nominating committee for the election of new officers, with Mrs. Ed Lee being named chairman. Other members of the committee include Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. Clarence Fagalde, Mrs. Bernard Barrett, and Mrs. H. A. Olson.

It was decided that the organization would attend Memorial Day services in a body at the Congregational Church on May 29.

Mrs. C. E. Fagalde, Rehabilitation chairman of the organization, announced that carnations had been sent to Ward 17 of the Veteran's Hospital for Mother's Day.

There being no further business the organization adjourned to enjoy refreshments with the Legion members.

Registration Open Next Week For Tots, First Graders

Schools in the Campbell area have just released the schedule for registering children for kindergarten and first grades for the fall term in the Campbell, San Tomas and Moorpark schools.

Children of kindergarten age consist of those who will be four and six months on or before September 1, 1949. First graders who will be five years, six months on or before September 1, 1949, are eligible for the coming school year. First grade students, who are not in the kindergarten at present, will be registered at the same time.

Registrations will take place at the Campbell Union Grammar school May 16 to May 27.

Children will be registered at the San Tomas school May 17 to May 27 between the hours of 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

At the Moorpark school, parents may register their children from May 16 to May 20.

Birth certificates, if available, will speed registration procedure, officials said. Pre-registration is necessary to help schedule the coming fall school program.

How many people remember the good old days when you went into a drug store to buy ice cream and the boy at the fountain asked you whether you wanted a five- or a ten-cent dish?

American Legion Auxiliary To Sell Poppies In Campbell For Three Days

Poppies by the thousands are coming from the skillful fingers of disabled war veterans in all veteran hospitals in preparation for Poppy Day, May 26-28, Mrs. Rex K. Fuller, poppy chairman of Campbell, unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, announced today.

Mrs. Fuller is directing arrangements for the observance of Poppy Days here, when the veteran-made poppies will be worn to honor the dead of both world wars and to aid the disabled and the children of veterans.

MORE ON SARGENT APPOINTS

vices became evident. He pointed out that the state has already appropriated $50,000 to buy its site from the county in the new center, and doubted the state would use that money for a more expensive downtown site. The federal government's willingness to take part in the development is indicated by the fact that the Intergovernmental Relations studies which developed the new site plan were initiated by the federal government itself.

Describing the poppy-making activities Mrs. Fuller said, "It is very interesting to see the way a veteran makes a poppy, taking petals of crepe paper and a stem of wire and shaping them into a very attractive replica of the wild poppies which grew on the battle fields and around the graves in Europe during both wars. Many veterans become very skillful in the work and can produce the memorial flowers with amazing rapidity. They enjoy the work, and being gainfully employed helps give them a wholesome mental attitude which promotes recovery.

"Illness of veterans is one of the major causes of the distress which the Auxiliary relieves with its poppy funds. When the veteran is forced to go to a government hospital for treatment, often his family is left without means of support. Even if he is eligible for compensation, time is required to establish his claim; and a hungry family cannot wait. The Auxiliary must be ready to give emergency aid, and on Poppy Day we invite the public to help us carry out our work of mercy and relief."

Mrs. Fuller emphasized that all the Auxiliarys' Poppy Day workers are unpaid volunteers and that all money contributed for the flowers of memory goes into the rehabilitation and child welfare funds, none being used for organization overhead.

Jaycees To Start Baseball League For Community

M. K. Bachman, chairman, and Jim Cassingman, assistant, will organize the new baseball league in the Union, Cambrian, San Tomas and Campbell areas, for the Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce. The vote to start the league was taken at last week's meeting. The group also set June 21 as the date for its Charter Night.

Thomas Boyle and Joseph Anello were appointed as Jaycee representatives to the San Tomas carnival to be held June 4 at the San Tomas school. Committee members for charter night will be Donald Gracier, chairman, and Albert Briddon, Charles Livingston, Monte Cook and Edward Lazzarini.

About 25 members met in Casanova club on Almaden road, new meeting place. Next meeting will be held May 18.

The Foxworthy extension from Lanz avenue to San Jose-Los Gatos highway at Cambrian Reservoir fountain has been completed for traffic.

News Notes From Moorpark School

The Moorpark Men's club, at their last regular meeting, voted to assume sponsorship of the Girl Scout activities. It is hoped that this local sponsorship will offer greater opportunities to the girls of Brownie and Scout age than when they have had no local sponsorship. This move is in addition to the fine sponsorship of the club of the new local Cub Scouts, Pack 25.

A lifting tractor, trucks and a six ton roller have been roaring back and forth by the windows of the present classrooms, filling and leveling the foundation, preparatory to setting the heating pipes and pouring the concrete slab. "Terrific" is a mild word for the noise of construction this past week on the new buildings.

The outdoor program held recently was quite a success and heartily enjoyed by the many who attended. The setting was between the two present buildings, with the corridor walk serving as a stage, and audience seated back on the west side. In order for all the pupils as well as the parents to see the program, it was presented in the morning and again to the afternoon classes. The orchestra of 14 players surprised everyone with its program, as most of the members had just started their instruments last November.

The kindergartens offered their usual delightful touch to the program as did the afternoon fourth grade of Mrs. Grace Fairbanks, in poems and songs of early California.

Several folk dances were given by the morning sixth grade, directed by Mrs. Lavon Corbin. Mrs. Harold Tapogna, chairman of the recent PTA rag drive which netted $63, presented checks of $2.50 each to the winning upper and primary grades. Stephen Larson accepted for Mrs. McCarty's second grade, and Robert Young for Mrs. Corbin's fifth grade.

Knapp To Illustrate Magic Photography In "Travel Trails Of the Andes" Tonight At Local School Auditorium

Through the magic of color photography, a fabulous and exotic world will be brought to the screen in a feature length production by Herbert Knapp at the Campbell Grammar school auditorium tonight at 8 p.m. Film is "Travel Trails of the Andes."

Knapp, who is sponsored by Campbell groups, will display and narrate his movie. The film has been widely acclaimed as the season's outstanding travel and documentary film of South America. It has been recently sponsored by such nationally known organizations as National Geographic society, Washington, D.C.; World Adventure Series, Detroit; Columbia University, New York; Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, Chicago Photographic society and many others.

"This is more than a travel picture," say the service groups of the Congregational church, the sponsors. "It is a travel experience along trails of the past — through the fabulous top-of-the-world empire of pre-historic Inca lands of Ecuador and Peru, viewing picturesque Indians, their primitive villages, homes of top-of-the-world farms."

The film follows the Indians over back country trails to the weekly market and colorful fiestas. It goes to Lima, one of the world's most beautiful cities in the midst of an almost rainless desert. Then for contrast, it goes again to the tip of the Southern Andres and roams around Cuzco — a city that was old when the Spaniards arrived.

Four thousand feet of real travel adventure will be shown to Campbell patrons who see tonight's show. Admission will be charged at the door. 75 cents for adults, students 50 cents and children under 12, 25 cents.

Hundreds of telephone people in the West keep night patrol to help meet emergencies and keep service reliable

1. Darkness can't stop these telephone men as they begin an important emergency cable repair at night. Fortunately, these emergencies are not common . . . usually can be repaired in daylight. But, up and down the Coast, other telephone people burn midnight oil regularly . . . so your telephone will work for you when you want it.

2. One important night-time job is done by this electronic tester. It checks lines to make sure they're in good shape. At the same time, other telephone men are vacuum cleaning and inspecting sensitive switching equipment . . . you might say it's stopping trouble before it starts. And night is the best time to do it, while most telephone users are sleeping.

3. In the quiet hours of the night operators handle relatively few calls . . . but many of them are vitally important. Repairmen are on call for service on important lines . . . doctors, hospitals and the like. Garagemen check and equip trucks for the next day's installation rounds. Building service workers make offices spic and span . . . all a part of providing reliable service to you.

Speedway Offers Thrills Galore

For the second week in a row the San Jose Speedway is offering racing fans two servings of track thrills: the rocketing roadsters on Friday night and the marvelous midgets on Sunday night.

Several thousand track addicts viewed the two programs last week, as records fell, cars crashed, and drivers flirted with the beckoning finger of St. Peter.

Last Friday night's hot rod events saw George Hubbard roar to the greatest racing program of his career. George topped off a highly-successful evening by copping the 25-lap main event (for the second week in a row at San Jose) in record time. Earlier in the evening Hubard also set a new track record in the 6-lap fourth heat. and the fiery hot Hubbard copped still a third victory in one of the 8-lap final heats.

The midget debut on Sunday had the fans gnawing their finger nails and hopping up and down in their seats. The thrill-packed evening was topped off in the main event of 25-laps when San Jose's Merv Furtado rammed into the crash wall and Johnny Soares lost his front, right wheel as his car kissed the not-so-romantic crash wall.

Experts Urge Local Perishable Produce Men To Protect Crops

Campbell area growers of perishable produce were urged today by California agricultural and nutritional experts to fully protect the weights and vitamin contents of their crops from fields through to consumer.

Recent experiments at the University of California College of Agriculture at Davis and at other research centers suggest the use of ice immediately after harvesting, not only as a means of retaining the original weight and freshness of the produce, but likewise to protect its important vitamin content. Such protection should be afforded perishables through all the various stages of shipping and marketing, the researchers found.

By comparison, un-iced vegetables were shown to lose rapidly in weight, thus reducing the cash return to grower, commission merchant and retailer, while the ultimate consumer received a wilted, inferior product.

More important, however, from health and nutritional standards were the loss of vitamins recorded in the tests. Spinach, for example lost nearly half of its vitamin C content in eight hours; lettuce, 22 percent; celery, 25 percent in 12 hours; asparagus, 22 percent; green beans, 25 percent in 18 hours, and peas, 25 percent in 24 hours. The iced produce retained its vitamin content for days.

Approximately 20,000 acres in Santa Clara County are devoted to perishable crops, with a proportionate share in the Campbell area, official surveys show. These include: Fall peas, 850 acres; spring peas, 75; bell peppers, 500; tomatoes, 5,000; spinach, 500; snap beans, 250; lima beans, 3,500; broccoli, 2,000; lettuce, 1,250; cucumbers, 540; celery, 1,400; corn 100; carrots, 600; miscellaneous general produce, 2,500; garlic, 460; onions, 70. The above figures are minimum and the actual totals may be somewhat higher.

SCRIBNER FAMILY EXTENDS THANKS

"We wish to thank all of the people in Campbell who have assisted us during the illness and death of our daughter and sister Mis Sybil Scribner," wrote the Scribner family of Campbell in a letter to the Campbell Press. They extended special thanks to all of the friends who sent floral offerings to the family last week.

Heber Bondurant Meets Death In Colusa Crash

Heber LeRoy Bondurant, 53, met sudden death May 4 when his car was hit by a train six miles east of Colusa. A passenger in Bondurant's car, Lionel R. Zumwalt, 45, of Colusa, also was killed.

Bondurant was manager of dehydrating activities for the California Prune and Apricot Growers association, and lived at 696 Robin Lane in Campbell. He had been connected with the firm for the past four years, and was widely known in Central California for his work with co-operative dryers.

According to word from Colusa, Bondurant was driving his car over a Northern Pacific Railroad crossing when it was hit by a diesel locomotive. Both the engine and its attached caboose were derailed, but crewmen escaped unhurt.

According to the engineer, his locomotive was proceeding about 25 miles an hour and Bondurant cut in front of him without warning. The auto was carried more than 125 feet before the diesel could be brought to a stop. The car was a total wreck.

Bondurant was chairman of the Santa Clara County Agricultural Conservation association and USDA War Board, a position which he resigned from in 1945. He was also formerly connected with Penney stores, and at one time ran an orchard and quick freeze locker in Morgan Hill. He came here from Oroville, and was a native of Bondurant, Iowa.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Greta Bondurant, Campbell; Two sons, Dean Bondurant, Sonora, and a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Haller, San Jose.

Funeral arrangements were made by Darling-Fischer Garden Chapel, San Jose.

In spring the young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, while the old man's thoughts are turned toward the income tax collector.

Jeanne Jensen, Campbell High school senior, won first prize in the annual Campbell American Legion Auxiliary Poppy poster contest out of 52 posters entered. Mrs. Rex Fuller, Legion Auxiliary representative, made the award to the winner at a school assembly April 26.

News from ORCHARD CITY GRANGE

By ROBERT WURFER, Sr.

The regular meeting of Orchard City Grange 333 had another very good attendance of 78 members including visitors from Mt. Hamilton Grange, The Worthy Master Terry Rowe and Mrs. Rowe, San Jose Grange four, Almaden one, Gilroy one, and Mr. Pete Lindsay of Coyote Grange, also our two well known visitors from Ohio.

The meeting started with the lecturer presenting the ladies of the Home Economics club who gave a kit showing their meeting and activities in a hilarious light, which was very much enjoyed. This skit was written by Mrs. N. Skillman

Then the meeting was opened by Worthy Master Martin Walsh in regular form. The officers marched in and were escorted to their station as usual. All standing committees were asked to report. Mrs. Marie Barnes, chairman of Home and Gardens, reported another plant and article exchange awaited at the Banquet Hall after the meeting. Mr. Laurance J. Hill, chairman of Education and School committe, gave a talk on the Assembly Bill 2120 urging the Grange support the bill as amended by Rep. Kirkwood at Sacramento. The secretary was instructed to send a letter to Mr. Kirkwood at the State capital in Sacramento and notify him that the Grange will support that bill.

A resolution was signed opposing vigorously the proposed Bay Bridge until the Reber Plan has been temporarily invetsigated and proved unworkable or impossible. This Reeber Plan is finally getting a lot of support.

Mrs. Blanche Gilpatrick reported on the grammar school ground lighting meetings and the Civic Improvement Affairs Committee was instructed to make arrangements for a booth in the coming Carnival July 9 which is to raise funds for the lighting of the playground, which is, by the way, a very worthy cause. The committee is Mark E. Purmort, J. M. Dahl and Blance Gilpatrick.

Master of Mt. Hamilton grange Terry Rowe was escorted to the right of the Master's chair and gave a brief talk. The Worthy overseer George Shattuck was escorted to the Master chair and introduced as Master for the next three meetings as our regular Master M. Walsh is going on a trip starting Saturday to Florida, Cuba, the Atlantic coast and New York City.

After several other reports refreshments awaited us in the Banquet Hall, prepared by the refreshment committee consisting of Mrs. Melisa Smith, chairmtn, Mrs. Florence Friday and Mrs. Sarah Blue. Next meeting of the Grange will be held May 24 at 8 p. m. in the IOOF hall.

San Tomas Carnival Funds Will Go To Community Youth Organizations

Youth organizations of San Tomas will receive the profits from the June 4 San Tomas Carnival, according to the sponsors of the affair. Men of the San Tomas Men's club will turn over the money from the Saturday carnival and allocate it to various youth activities.

The money will first go to a board composed of San Tomas group leaders who are interested in youth projects in the community. The Men's club will organize the board who will then decide where the money is most needed.

Cecil Rose is chairman for the carnival which will feature colorful booths promoted by organizations in the San Tomas area, entertainment, games and prizes. The activities will last all day and will be held at the San Tomas school grounds.

Over 150 scouts from the combined membership are expected to attend the ditsrict meet, Dalzell said.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL CARNIVAL BIG SUCCESS; CLEARS OVER $300

Approximately $300 was cleared in last Friday's school carnival held at the Campbell Grammar school, according to Mrs. Dorothy Royce, principal.

The carnival, sponsored by the Junior Red Cross group at the school, was held to raise funds for permanent playground equipment of the non-hazardous type.

Children of the school, who were allowed to dress in costume for the day, were allowed free time during the day to attend the carnival. The hot dog stand proved the most popular, clearing $50. Booths were sponsored by the school children from the fifth grade up.

Reading Habits Should Develop From Early Childhood Is Opinion Of Moorpark PTA Panel Group

That the best reading habits are formed in early childhood—the time to introduce good books—was the concurrent opinion of the panel discussing "Your Child's Reading Habits," at the Moorpark PTA meeting Tuesday evening at the school. Three parents, Mrs. F. L. Dearborn, Eugen C. Andres Jr., and Stuart Ralston were on the panel with Ralston acting as moderator. the teachers' viewpoint was presented by Mrs. Helen Peterson.

There are many things the home can do to encourage good reading, agreed the speakers. Advocated were family use of the library, parental reading to children and discussion of books.

Speaker Andres dealt with the problem of comic books, recommending they be sifted out for the good and the bad. Comic books' bright colors, abundance of actions, and short sentences, or readability, account for their popularity. There is a trend toward their improvement and use as an educational medium, said Mrs. Dearborn. A new series will illustrate children's classics.

Citing research facts on reading, Mrs. Peterson said that nine is the average age at which a child enjoys reading for himself. To build good reading habits, the school is concerned with developing reading mechanics and maintaining a school circulating library. Next year Moorpark expects aid from the county library to increase their school library.

Following the panel reports, parents inspected a display of recommended children's books and magazines. They were given a bibliography of worthwhile books for children.

The evening's stimulating PTA program also included a social period at which refreshments were served and a business meeting conducted by Mrs. Eugen Andres, president. Committee reports were made on the successful card party and rag projects held recently.

Mrs. Q. A. Di Benedetto, study club chairman, announced the group's meeting Thursday, May 12 at Moorpark school.

Ben Mabie, school principal, urged PTA cooperation in setting up the summer recreation program for this area. He also expressed hope that a hot lunch arrangement could be worked out next year at school. A healthful food program for school children is of vital concern to the PTA, he said.
